The CUF Prayer Diary is now available on our website. In this first issue, we focus on building strong communities, finding hope by working together, and supporting the needs of the most vulnerable in our society.

Our prayer diary is a thoughtful resource designed to guide your prayers. It's free, and a great way for us all to unite in our shared concerns, motivate us for service and bring about transformation.

Paths to action webinars

CHURCH URBAN FUND

Paths to action webinar series

18 Sep	10:30-11:30 AM Zoom	Together in prayer An invitation to join us for a powerful time of reflection and prayer around social justice, with a time of led intercession for your own local work.
3 Oct	10-11 AM Zoom	Driving your responses to poverty with data If you knew what we know about poverty in your parish, what changes would you make? Take a deep dive into the data behind CUF's Look Up Too, with experts in the field, and be resourced to take confident action.
20 Nov	10-11 AM Zoom	Extending the table: Generosity in our communities Explore how we can all make space to show God's love to more people through our churches, with inspiration from experienced practitioners and time for reflection.

Less than a month to go until the start of the second series of Paths to action webinars. We are starting with Together in Prayer with Sara Barron, NECN Executive Director.

All the webinars are now open for registration. The series promises to provide valuable tools and actionable insights for your work.

Rob's run for Church Urban Fund

Our CEO, Rob, is taking on the challenge of running the Great North Run this September to raise funds for CUF! Let's cheer him on and support this great cause.

Every donation, big or small, will help us continue our mission. Find out how to sponsor Rob and contribute to CUF.
