Seed-bombs and bubble prayers? CUF must be off to Greenbelt

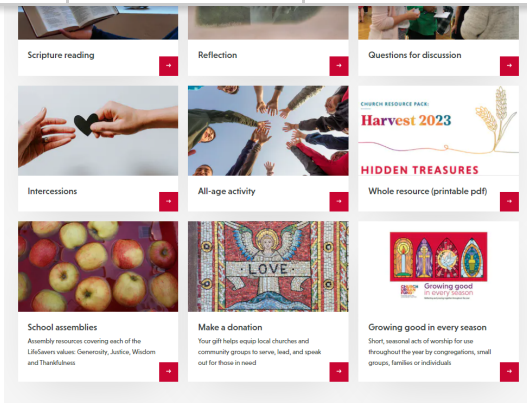

Dear Laura,

We're heading to the Greenbelt Festival, from Friday 25 to Sunday 27 August, to ask people what they love about where they live (is it marked on our map?) and what we can build on together. Festival-goers will be able to pop in to our Place of Welcome for a cuppa and a chat. The CUF team will also be speaking at various events about ways to bring social action into the heart of your church. And we're running a family-friendly story-telling session, making seed-bombs and raising intercessions to heaven – with the aid of detergent.

fresh reading of the Wedding at Cana, our reflection asks: what if the gifts and tools you need to meet the needs of your community are already among you? Materials include a Bible reading and reflection, questions for discussion, prayers, an all-age activity, and an opportunity to support the work of CUF.
